REUBEN SMITH

Dedication

To Reuben Smith for his many years of devoted service to Union High School and for his faithful upholding of the belief that "Man is in the world for the benefit he can give the world," we sincerely dedicate this "Aurora."

Mr. Smith attended Union in its little-red-schoolhouse stage and has served on the faculty of Union for twelve years.

As a sponsor of the Union Hi-Y, whose creed stresses loyalty to the church, home, and school, and as a Bible narrative instructor, Mr. Smith has exemplified for us the true principles of Christian character.

Foreword

WITHIN these pages of the 1935 "Aurora" we give evidence of our faith that out of the worldwide chaos of today Youth will and can bring order.

During the last four years we graduates of 1935, like the Youth on the cover, have brought to bud on the stem of modern education an independent spirit capable of taking over more and more what was once thought to be exclusively faculty work.

We have helped to build into Union High School life successful organizations of self-government. The etiquette classes, for which we campaigned, have been profitable; the Service Squad has proved its worth, the assembly committee has given us programs that cannot easily be excelled; the Student Representative Council for Boys' Intramural Sports is improving athletics; and the Student Council is constantly revising school rules for the good of all students.

Besides creating, backing, and publishing the "Reflector," our school newspaper, we have renewed the custom of an annual inter-high staff banquet.

Our boys have shown that they no longer feel they must stay out of the kitchen and our girls that they dare to go into the printshops.

Our senior play, "The Enemy," clearly reveals the belief of modern youth in the futility of war. From the bottom of our hearts we echo its theme, "God give us love, God give us tolerance, God give us peace."

"The Builders"

"The Builders," a specimen of "American art for Americans," is a recent addition to Union High School's objects of art. In March, 1934, Principal Charles A. Everest conceived the idea of having this mural, 6 by 32 feet in size, painted for the main foyer of the high school. He chose as the artist for this task, Lumen Winter, a Union graduate of 1926, whose ideas in the field of art are rapidly bringing him national recognition.

While attending Grand Rapids Junior College, Mr. Winter was an illustrator and cartoonist on the Grand Rapids Herald. After completing his course at Junior College, he studied at the Cleveland School of Art, later going to the National Academy of Design in New York where he honors in life drawing. His outstanding achievements in the field of art promise him international recognition in the future.

The preliminary sketches for "The Builders" were presented with little delay and in spite of the enormous amount of research work to be done, Mr. Winter had the picture ready for showing late in the summer. The mural creates the feeling of the movement from East to West as Michigan experiences its stages of development. We see the slow-moving, ox-drawn wagon of the past in relation to the present high-speed train and aeroplane; early religious teaching of missionaries is contrasted with the modern procedure via radio. The noteworthy educational progress of Michigan is represented by the figures of a school teacher and a child in union with early laborers of mines and forests and present-day machine workers.

Critics say that all of the industrial material in the mural is so accurate as to be almost photographic and center their appreciation in the strength of the subject, the wonderful draftsmanship, and the rich harmony between color and design.

The Class of 1935 proudly presents this pageant of progress as their memorial to Union High School.

FACULTY

ADMINISTRATION (1934-1935)

STUDENT ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ORGANIZED

Before this year, there has been at Union no organized group of students meeting regularly and giving their time to assemblies. We now have such an organization, the Student Assembly Committee. This committee not only plans the assembly calendar for the year, but visits other school assemblies. It has brought back many helpful points.

The committee consisting of Nancy Trenis, Isabel Van Driel, Prentiss Powell, and Donald Cahill has done some constructive work. Jane Riordan and Gerald Antflink replaced Nancy Trenis and Donald Cahill near the close of the year.

This group has also made an inventory of school talent. Among the "discovered" who have already taken part in school assemblies are Peggy Meyers, who gave a tap dance; the Cosmopolitan Quartet, who sang a few songs; the Seigel twins, who gave a song and dance number; and Joe Mazurek, who played the accordion.

Some of the speakers that this group has brought to our assemblies are Dr. W. D. Henderson from the University of Michigan; Rev. Milton McGorrill of Fountain Street Baptist Church; Spencer Hatch, missionary from India; Ben East of the Grand Rapids Press.

SCHOOL PRESENTED WITH MURAL

On September 19, 1934, a mural by Lumen Winter had its private showing in the main foyer of the school. The main idea had been conceived by Principal C. A. Everest in March. Mr. Winter was chosen to do this work because of his outstanding ability as an artist when and since he was a student at Union. The expenses of this project were paid by this year's senior class as its class memorial.

SIX NEW COURSES OFFERED

The following new courses have been offered: bookbinding, personal regimen, American literature, contemporary literature, general metals, and etiquette. One hundred and four juniors and seniors have been taking the latter course.

BOOK WEEK CELEBRATED

In observance of Book Week, Mrs. Myrtle Coon Cherryman gave a talk on "How to Read Books." After her talk booklets were given to the students. These booklets contained an inspiring foreword written by Miss Anna Kunert and Miss Grace Thomasma. Included also were pages for writing literary quotations; a list of historical fiction, prose, and poetry; and a few choice quotations on books.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

American Education Week was observed in all of the English classes. Exhibits by the art department and English students were placed in the exhibition cases on the third floor. An interesting speaker, Mr. A. Lawren Brown, whose subject was "The Next Step in Education," also spoke in assembly.

SCHOOL NEWSPAPER PROMOTED

The "Union Reflector," a weekly newspaper advocated by Miss Myrtle Heseltine, Miss Clara Smallidge, and Mr. Clayton Bazuin and achieved through the help of the Press Club and the students, is an example of what can be done with whole-hearted cooperation. The "Union Reflector" gave the first three assemblies of the year.

ALUMNI STAGE HOMECOMING

The Union Alumni Association planned a big homecoming to take place just before the Thanksgiving game. Canes, painted in the school colors, and programs were sold. An old-time "pep" assembly bringing back "those good old school days" was one of the attractions on the program.

GIRL SONG LEADERS INTRODUCED

For the first time in its history Union, this year, had girl song leaders who took official part in the athletic program. Pins were awarded for this activity. These awards are to be made an annual event.

NINE NEW CLUBS FORMED

Many new clubs have been organized. They are the Press, Junior Press, Chess, Airplane, Draftsman's, Humane, Garden, Stamp, and the Junior Sportsmen's Clubs.

THREE TEACHERS ADDED

New faculty members are Mr. Harold Mac Lean, instructor of metal work; Mr. Fred Redemsky, instructor of woodwork; and Miss Geraldine Masters, teacher of history. The latter teacher is taking the place of the former Miss Lucelia Badgley.

TWO TEACHERS LEAVE

The teachers who have left or are leaving this year are Miss Ella Pearce who married Mr. James Johnson and is residing in Detroit, and Mr. Reuben Smith who is retiring.

STAGE EQUIPMENT REJUVENATED

The asbestos curtain in the auditorium was rejuvenated during Christmas vacation. A new mulberry-colored cyclorama was bought for the auditorium.

ENROLLMENT GREATER THIS YEAR

Union has an enrollment of 2,300 for the year 1935. This is an increase of 75 over the enrollment of 1934.

CLASS SONG

Farewell, Union, we must leave you,
But your fame we'll carry far,
Singing, "Union, we salute you
Ever as our guiding star!"
To us you'll be a memory
Of friendships we hold high,
And we'll ever fling your praises
Like banners to the sky.

Farewell, Union, we shall miss you,
Your rooms, your halls, your stairs,
The happy years we spent here,
Those care-free school affairs.

Your bells for us will ring no more
As in the days gone by
When teachers gave from Wisdom's store
At our dear Union High.

CHORUS:

"Think clearly,
Act rightly,"
Is written on our shields,
And fairly,
And squarely
We'll conquer in new fields.

Marie Roman '35
Elsie Anderson '35

CLASS WILL

We, the ancient and beloved senior class of 1935, do, upon breathing our last in these spacious surroundings, dictate this, our first, last and final will and testament, thereby silencing any and all unnecessary quibbling over the fruits of our fertile years, our rights, our liberties, our privileges.

Item: To the junior class, the soon-to-be elite, hapless troupe that they are, we leave the declining prestige of our superiority.

Item: To the future president of said class, we leave one used gavel; the right to call meetings at any hour, any day, any week; the privilege of trying to make himself heard in the auditorium.

Item: To the underclassmen of the future, we leave the right, nay, the duty, to purchase without murmur and with proper enthusiasm all tickets for all plays, parties, etc., offered by seniors.

Item: To one, all, and whom it may concern, we regretfully bequeath the journalistic extravaganza, the REFLECTOR, with and including (a) all typewriters (b) all paste jars, dried or otherwise (c) all reporters in various stages of infancy.

Item: To the faculty, through the unequalled generosity of our hearts, we leave, for their future enjoyment, the record of our genius, the lingering lights of our brilliance.

Item: To everyone, the highest bidder, or anyone who will take them, we leave the records of the meetings of the most intelligent group of seniors since Alexander Hamilton—(or are we mixed up?).

Item: To Mr. Stanley Albers, Mr. Fred Voss, Mr. Clayton Bazuin and their ilk, we forgivingly bequeath the right to "ride" senior boys for any and all misdemeanors, misconduct and encroachments upon their good dispositions—if any.

Item: To that horde who will ascend our places of honor in 1936, we, anticipating their great need for it, leave the etiquette class with its opportunities to become more like the well-mannered class now leaving.

To this: with failing heart and rheumatic hand, we affix our faltering signatures this first day of April, year of our Lord, One Thousand, Nine Hundred and Thirty-five.

FRESHMAN YEAR (1931-1932)

Sept. 8 — The class of '35 begins its long, long stretch of learning in high school.
Sept. 24 — Robert Livingston is elected president of the freshman class. Other "dignified" freshmen officers are Jane Riordan, vice-president; Gerald Bradish, secretary; Margaret Van Sluyters, girl treasurer; and Dick Pomeroy, boy treasurer.
Nov. 5 — Miss Doris Bishop, commercial teacher, dies from injuries received in an auto accident.
Nov. 11 — Freshmen throw their first party, a potluck and a hilarious mock wedding.
Nov. 16-21 — Unionites celebrate the creators of books by observing annual Book Week.
Nov. 26 — Union slays South and captures the state football title, score 19-13.
Dec. 16 — The infant undergrads start off their great scholastic record by receiving "A's" and "E's" on their report cards.
Dec. 24 — Santa Claus gives the "infants" a break.
March 10-12 — The freshmen leave their "school daze" and see the Follies of 1932.
April 22 — Everybody goes springing at the Spring Sport Spree.
May 10 — There's music in the air! The Music Festival furnishes sparkling melodies.
June 9 — The juniors keep up the tradition and give the seniors the annual Junior-Senior Prom.
June 16 — Another joyous vacation stares the freshmen in the face.

Sept. 6 — The class of 1935 enters the second lap of its great high school career at Union.
Sept. 27 — Sophs do the usual organizing and elect Mary Johnson president.
Oct. 6 — That delightful sheet of literature and gossip, The Union High News, makes its first appearance at Union.
Oct. 27 — The witches go gamboling at the G. U. C.'s third annual Witches' Gambol.
Oct. 29 — For the first time in four years, the Union football team takes a beating from Muskegon, 21-7.
Nov. 10 — Lumen Winter, '26, presents his good old alma mater with a painting, "Quest."
Nov. 24 — Union whips South at the annual Turkey Day football tussle 6-0 — and celebrates afterwards at the Turkey Strut.
Dec. 8 — Sophs have a potluck supper in the lunchroom with plenty of food and fun present.
Dec. 9 — Union gives Kalamazoo Central, state basketball champions of 1931-32, something to worry about by a 29-22 victory.
Dec. 19 — The soph girls give the boys a "Dutch Treat" at a Leap Year Party. (For once the girls made up the stag line rather than the boys.)
Jan. 7 — U. H. S. club picks an appropriate day for the Sno-Shoe Shuffle. (No snow.)
Jan. 18 — Sophs have a really and truly grown-up dance of their own.
Jan. 20 — Long-saved pennies melt away swiftly at the Copper Carnival.
Jan. 23 — Ugh! Exams! What, again?
Feb. 17 — After trying them out on us at two assemblies, Mr. Albers carts his dramatists to Muskegon to give "The Stolen Prince."
Feb. 23-24 — Theatrical seniors start the whole school talking by presenting the play, "The Whole Town's Talking."
March 3 — The Polar Bears muddle the city cage race by tramping over Union 17-13.
March 9 — Aged Union celebrates her eightieth birthday in a zippy but orderly manner.
March 31 — Students "tote" their proud parents to the Open House given by Union P.T.A.
April 8 — Allegan and Hastings fall into the clutches of the Red Hawks at a track meet.
April 21 — James B. Barrows amazes everybody in "Twenty-four Hours To Live."
April 29 — Student Council goes modernistic and sponsors the third annual Ball Moderne.
June 15 — Sophs become juniors! Big vacation ahead!

JUNIOR YEAR (1933-1934)

Sept. 18 — The Old Institution of Learning opens its doors a bit late this year.
Oct. 6 — Juniors hold their first meeting.
Oct. 20 — After much unusual campaigning and advertising junior class officers are elected: Phil Simon, president; Dave Ellis, vice-president; Alice Comrie, secretary; Pauline Samiec and Arnold Sonnevelt, treasurers.
Oct. 26 — No boys allowed! Girls go to Witches' Gambol escorted by their girl friends this time.
Nov. 24 — Juniors meet their fellow classmates at a Get-together.
Nov. 30 — It's all over! The city championship is cinched with a 13-0 hold over Central.
Dec. 22 — Student Council pleads with students to return stray books.
Feb. 10 — Juniors sponsor Prosperity Tussle to raise funds for a Junior-Senior Prom.
March 20 — Violent blowing of horns, student-laden trucks, automobiles of various sorts decorated in red and white, and a general commotion introduced the Stadium Boosters' parade and mass meeting held afterward in the auditorium.
May 18 — The juniors pay their respects to the seniors by giving the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Just an old Union custom!
June 8 — Juniors "keep sunny-side up" and take exams.
June 15 — Undignified juniors become dignified seniors.

SENIOR YEAR (1934-1935)

Sept. 18 — Everyone smilingly appears at school for the first day. (Only a half-day's attendance is required.)
Oct. 16 — Senior Prexy, Robert Livingston, we salute you!
Oct. 19 — After several assembly speeches Ray Bush is chosen to warm the seat of the president's chair of the Student Council.
Oct. 24 — Owls are hooting, witches and bats are flitting through the air, ghosts are lurking in dusty corners. It's the Witches' Gambol again.
Oct. 27 — The social season at Union begins with the Student Council presenting the second annual "Pleasure Cruise."
Nov. 2 — Mobs turn out to spend their pennies at the Copper Carnival.
Nov. 5-11 — Proud students display their hobbies during National Book Week.
Nov. 9 — Soft lights, faint music, sly whispers, dancers swirling around a glistening floor. No it's not heaven, just the Senior Take-Off.
Nov. 29 — Union beats South 6-0 to start off a perfect Homecoming Day.
Strutters strut their stuff at the Turkey Strut.
Dec. 8 — Junior Class "shoos" out Ole Man Depression for one gay evening at the Prosperity Tussle.
Dec. 13 — "The Other Kitty," a farce-comedy, is given by the Dramatics Club to the delight of students escaping from afternoon classes.
Dec. 17-21 — The cafeteria is all "dolled up," Christmas fashion, in modernistic works of Union art students.
Dec. 21 — Everyone is off for a merry Christmas and a happy vacation.
Jan. 11 — Sophs show their ability as socialites and throw the Union High Ball.
Jan. 25 — Students don snowshoes to attend the Snowshoe Shuffle.
Feb. 21-22—Several seniors show up Barrymore and Garbo in "The Enemy" presented by the Class of '35.
March 1 — Brightly colored balloons float merrily in the air, but not for long, as Union students skillfully pop them into bits at the Ball Moderne.
March 4 — Spring is here. First robin is sighted. Everyone is in love.
March 5 — Everyone is out of love. Grandpappy winter returns with a disgustingly biting blizzard.
March 15 — Italy, Germany, Russia, Poland, Scandinavia, Ireland, Scotland, Holland, etc. — all in one square block. It's not Europe, just the International Fair, sponsored by the P.T.A.
April 12 — Fancy dancers, plain dancers, good dancers, bad dancers, all compete for the silver cup at the "Prize Waltz," novelty dance presented by the juniors.
May 4 — Varsity Club says farewell in style at the Farewell Frolic.
May 18 — Seniors are the honored guests at a charming Junior-Senior Prom.
June 20 — Commencement — Dignified seniors break down and shed a few tears as they say tallyho to good old Union.

BUILDERS:
The Epic of the Lady of the Lakes

PROLOGUE

O, Lady of the Lakes, one hundred years,
Since you first joined the sisterhood of states,
The pounding waves have beat upon your shores.
In this, your laurel year, we shall relate
What men and deeds have made your history great.
For years within your woods dwelt Indian bands;
Fur trappers, traders, and French priests appeared.
At St. Marie first waved the flag of France.
Those Lilies floating in your breeze remained
Until Wolfe's victory brought England's reign.
Next Americans the Stars and Stripes unfurled
Of the thirteen states from British bonds set free.
O, Michigan, to you from all the world
Came pioneers who sought new liberty;
Homes rose, towns followed, and great cities grew;
Sawmill gave way to modern factory.
Your air is filled with ringing sounds quite new:
The clang of steel and rush of industry
Resound throughout your later history.
Though, Michigan, in other fields you've won,
Strong love of culture do your records show;
An education free to everyone,
For ignorance is mankind's greatest foe.
A state where thousands live and work and dream,
Thus, Michigan, you are for us today.
Your wide expanse of wood and field and stream
Has famed you as the playground of the land.
With faith and hope we pledge a willing hand
To labor for your glory, Michigan.

On Class Day, in appropriate commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the state of Michigan, the senior class of 1935 presented "Builders — The Epic of The Lady of The Lakes," a pageant in two divisions. Based on the Lumen Winter mural, "Builders," in the main foyer of the school, the pageant pictured first the history of the state and secondly its progress in industry, education, and culture.

The pageant was prepared for production by Jack Cooper, Class Day chairman, assisted by the following committee: Dorothy Danielson, Alice Comrie, Estelle Poposki, Eva Niemi, Christine Kowalski, Elsie Anderson, John Wynstra, Albert Gillis. The English Literature and American Literature classes aided in the research.

Supervision and direction was by Miss Grace Thomasma, senior adviser, and Stanley Albers, dramatic coach. Other faculty members who assisted in the project were Miss Geraldine Masters, Miss Florence Best, Miss Charlotte Gierst, Miss Florence Parsell, Miss Laura Rowson, Miss Elizabeth Dockeray, Mr. Theodore Fryfogle, Mr. Paul Markwardt, and Mr. Henry Hornbeck.

Valuable suggestions were received from the following: Miss Eveleyn Abbott, of Turner school; Miss May Quigley, of the Ryerson Library; Miss Anne Lewellyn, of Grand Rapids Art Gallery; Frank L. Dumond, of the Kent Scientific Museum.

SENIOR PLAY CAST

Front row, left to right: Arlene Rinner, Jane Riordan, Mr. Stanley Albers, director; Nancy Trenis, Alice Comrie.
Second row: Prentiss Powell, James Parrette, John Dalton, Jerome Gedris.
Third row: Peter Blashkiw, Cora Vanden Bos, Gerald Antflink.

THE SENIOR PLAY OF 1935

"The Enemy," Channing Pollock's four-act war drama, was chosen Monday, December 10, by the members of the class as the senior play for 1935. A double girl cast and a single boy cast was chosen.

Nancy Trenis enacted the role of Pauli Arndt, a sensitive, well-bred Austrian girl, on Friday evening. Jane Riordan took the same part on Thursday evening. The husband, Carl, was portrayed by James Parrette.

Gerald Antflink swaggered about realistically as Carl's loud-mouthed profiteering father. The intellectual Dr. Arndt, pacifist, professor, and Pauli's father, was keenly characterized by Peter Blaskiw. Humor was supplied by Cora Vanden Bos as the buxom, bustling maid, Baruska.

John Dalton gave a dramatic portrayal of Fritz Winckelman, war crazed news reporter. Arlene Rinner and Alice Comrie played the part of his wife on Thursday and Friday, respectively. Jackie Rinsema, age 6, was introduced as Kurt, their young son. Jerome Gedris acted as Bruce Gordon, an English admirer of Pauli. Prentiss Powell made effective the short role of Jan, a nervous young servant.

The production staff included Edward Kunst, business manager; John Byle, publicity manager; Ernest King, electrician; Gerald Buchanan, stage manager; Margaret Van Sluyters and Stanley Obiedzinski, costumes; Robert Martini and Joe Olenzak, properties; and Raymond Bush, sound effects.

Each member of the senior class agreed to sell four tickets each. Due to their cooperation and a splendid publicity campaign, a capacity audience attended on both Thursday and Friday evenings.

RESERVE OFFICERS' TRAINING CORPS
(COMPANY "C")

During the past year the R.O.T.C. has assumed certain duties at school, among which are the flag ceremony at assemblies and ushering at both assemblies and football games. More of the important duties of the R.O.T.C. are taking part in parades and on several occasions standing a formal retreat.

The two gala events of the R.O.T.C. are Federal Inspection and Field Day. At the former, inspection is made of the units by a regular army officer to determine the amount of progress obtained and to give the school a rating. Last year Union was given the highest rating in the city. Field Day is a day of competitive drill between the respective units in the city, cups being given for the best drill squad, the best sponsors, the best company, and the best arms-stacking squad. Union has permanently won the two former cups. The medals given for the best cadet officer and best cadet were won by members of the Union R.O.T.C.

The ultimate goal of instruction in R.O.T.C. has been to establish habits of cleanliness, self-discipline, exemplary personal conduct and subordination to proper authority. We hope we have thoroughly developed the fundamentals of true leadership: the ability to think clearly and logically; to apply theory to practice; to make a rapid estimate of a situation, arrive at a commonsense decision, and carry the decision through with force, self-control, self-assurance, and a maximum of consideration for the feeling and reaction of others.

(COMPANY "E")

Company "E," a newly organized unit of the inter-high battalion, was formed in February of 1935. An unusual increase in enrollment made this necessary. This unit has worked under great disadvantages because of the difficulties of organizing. Considerable competition has arisen between it and Company "C" too because of their close relationship.

The activities of the company for the school cover ushering for assemblies in conjunction with Company "C," acting as police for various affairs and maintaining order at football games.

Field Day held May 24, 1935, was the day in which the various units of the battalion exhibited their skill. This day is considered the annual finale of all R.O.T.C. activities.

The purpose of the R.O.T.C is to instill into the minds of the cadets a spirit of good citizenship and self-reliance, and to create in them coordination of mind and muscle so that they may obtain the correct attitude of serving others for better general welfare.

The three sponsors of this organization aid in activities and act as hostesses at all affairs connected with the unit. They maintain a social relationship between the students and cadets. They are elected annually by popular vote of the organization. The usual procedure is as follows: the cadets elect a sophomore sponsor each year to replace the graduating senior. There are always three sponsors; a sophomore, a junior, and a senior. The sponsors this year, Arlene Proos, Marcelline Homrich, Jo Ann Porcupile, had the privilege of shooting at the rifle range used by the rifle team composed of members from both companies.

VARSITY FOOTBALL

Opening the season with but four lettermen and only one regular performer from last year's state championship squad, the 1934 Union High gridders under the able tutelage of Coach John Hess battled their way to another city football championship, tying with the Trojans of South for the coveted title.

In the season's opener East Grand Rapids held the Unionites to a scoreless tie. Showing great improvement, Creston was subdued 13-0. The Hessmen then encountered Tech and were upset 12-0. Taking an early lead which they held all the way, the Hawks defeated Central 6-0. Union journeyed to Muskegon and was defeated 7-6 in a heart-breaking game. Presenting the greatest offensive power of the season, the Red Hawks piled up twenty first downs against Ottawa's four, only to have the game end in a 13-13 tie. The game was later forfeited to Union. The Hessmen crushed their bitter rivals, the Cougars of Catholic Central, 25-0. On Thanksgiving Day the Red Raiders celebrated the first big home-coming day by a decisive 6-0 victory over the undefeated Trojan eleven to end the season in a blaze of glory.

Captain Dickie Burns was by far Union's outstanding performer and gained recognition on all the all-city and some all-state teams. "Babe" Waskiewicz and Joe Olejniczak were also honored with all-city selections.

The squad consisted of Burns, Olejniczak, Hansen, Lane, Grams, Schuiling, Rybachok, Blashkiw, Kareckas, Rynberg, Whitecavage, and Pomeroy, seniors. Returning for next year are Kailunas, Honholt, VanderLaan, Mercer, Gamble, Amon, Drabinski, and Captain-elect Waskiewicz.

Third row: Frank Princecavage, James Downing, Donald Brandow, Peter Bialas, William Huff, Zigman Uzarski.
Fourth row: Walter Kurylowicz, manager; Fred Henkel, Joseph Mientek, manager; Andrew Wysocki, Peter Mikita, Mr. W. Maynard Ellingson, coach.

RESERVE FOOTBALL

The 1934 second team faced a stiff schedule but turned in an impressive showing. Coach "Doc" Ellingson lost all the 1933 city championship material to the first squad and the newcomers had to be taught the fundamentals of the game. At the conclusion of the second game, "Doc" lost all the juniors on the squad because of a new ruling, thus leaving him only inexperienced freshmen and sophomores on the second squad.

Despite these complications the boys never gave up and, if nothing else can be said about the "scrubs," as the second team is often called, they were one of the scrappiest outfits ever to represent Union.

Every year the second team develops some outstanding candidates for the first team of the next year. This year the most outstanding candidate, according to Coach Ellingson, is Joe Jackin. He is a sophomore and plays in the backfield. Other players who show promise are Robert McCarthy, Ray VanderLaan, William Miller, Dan Richards, Edward Staskiewicz, Tom Lane, John Kurtyka, Joseph Uzas, Stanley Kozlowski, and Casmir Gregory, all of whom won letters.

Phil Simon '35

Second row: Joseph Berkowitz, student coach; Alfonse Waskiewicz, Wallace Imhoff, Jack Newman, Mr. W. Maynard Ellingson, coach.
Third row: Charles Skuzinski, manager; John Rybachok, Robert Grams, co-captain; Jack Amon, Carl Orwant, head manager.

FIRST TEAM BASKETBALL

The basketball team of 1934-1935 was not so impressive in the matter of wins and losses as some teams which have preceded it, but the spirit and the courage of the team lived up to the finest Union traditions.

When Coach Maynard Ellingson issued his first call for basketball practice, he found he had to build his team around the Co-captains Grams and Simon, center and guard respectively. Grams was back only for one semester.

"Doc" deserves a great deal of credit for the way be handled his squad, and the boys for the way they responded to the training of their mentor. According to Coach Ellingson, it was the most inexperienced team with which he had ever started a season.

At the beginning of the campaign, Union was rated next to the bottom as far as experience was concerned, and its chances for defending the city title considered slim. Though the team trailed along in sixth place at the end of the first semester, it remained undaunted, picked up steam, and won every game the second semester, except one overtime with Catholic, to wind up the season in third place with seven wins and five losses. Incidentally, Union was the only team to defeat Ottawa, city champions, during the entire season.

Simon and Whitecavage, guards, received all-city honors, and Gutaskus, team high scorer, received honorable mention.

Returning for next year are Co-captains Gutaskus and Honholt, Imhoff, and Amon.

Peter Blashkiw '35

Second row: Joseph Olejniczak, student coach; Benjamin Simon, Richard DeKorn, Robert Blandford, Richard Goolian, Mr. Harmon S. Jones, coach.
Third row: Leonard Mervenne, manager; Donald Cutler, John Kurtyka, Peter Rybachok.

SECOND TEAM BASKETBALL

This year's second team without any full-time veterans enjoyed a highly successful season. Mr. Harmon S. Jones, coach, deserves a large share of the credit for the way he handled the boys. From a last year's championship junior high team, Mr. Jones picked his regular quintet consisting of Klein and Princecavage, forwards; Newman, center; Olszewski, Groenleer, guards.

The team lost but four games during the season and won eight. The first half of the semester, they forfeited two games because two players were ineligible. In the second semester they lost to two teams they had previously beaten, but even in losing they displayed admirable fighting spirit.

Letter winners were Robert Klein, Adrian Steenland, John Kurtyka, Stan Olszewski, Frank Princecavage, Wilbur Groenleer, Richard DeKorn, Peter Rybachok, Richard Goolian, Dan Richards, and Robert Blandford.

TRACK

Seventy boys answered Coach John Hess's call for track practice in the spring of 1934. Of these, eleven returned from the 1933 track team: Miknavich, pole vault and high hurdles; Kucinskas, high hurdles; Grams, weights; Coffee and Russel, half-mile; Giles, Hutchins, Makowski, mile; Waskiewicz, pole vault; Cyberski, quarter mile; W. Rybachok, dashes.

The first meet of the season was against Allegan in which the Red Hawks won by the close score of 55½ to 48½. Coach Hess uncovered some good material in Rice, sprinter, and Schneider, high and broad jumper.

Catholic Central was next encountered at South Field. The Red Hawks won this meet by a score of 62 to 42. Union then took the next two meets, upsetting Ottawa Hills, pre-meet favorites and later city and state champions, with a score of 55 to 49, and Central with a score of 69 to 35. In the city meet Union made third place, with a total of 24 points.

In the state meet Norb Miknavich won first place in the 120-yard high hurdles, and placed fourth in the pole vault. Bob Giles placed third in the mile run, setting a new school record for this event. His time was 4:33:4. In the Indian relays, the Red Hawks took first place in the two mile relay event.

The letter winners of the 1934 track squad were Miknavich, Giles, W. Rybachok, Hutchins, Grams, Kucinskas, Cyberski, Coffee, Waskiewicz, Rice, Makowski, Richards, Russell, and Schneider.

Lettermen returning are Capt.-elect Hutchins, Schneider, Rice, Waskiewicz, and Richards.

1934 ANNUAL GIRLS' MEET

The tenth annual girls' athletic meet took place Friday, May 11, 1934, in the Dillingham gymnasium. The seniors, managed by Edna Vanden Bos, won first place with 1,350 points. The juniors and sophomores tied for second with 1,150 points. They were managed by Alyce Phillips and Wanda Wyzykoski.

The juniors took first place in basketball dribble relay with the seniors running second and sophs third. In hop, step, and jump the sophs got their one and only first place. The seniors jumped into second and the juniors took last place. In rhythms the juniors won with a spirited Russian dance. The sophs waltzed into second place with a beautiful Shadow Waltz. The seniors took third with a clog. The stunt combination relay was won by the juniors, the seniors placing second and the sophs third.

In a volleyball game between the seniors and sophomores, the juniors having been eliminated in previous games, the seniors won by a score of 21 to 14.

The circle baton relay, last number in the meet, was won by the seniors, the sophs placing second and the juniors third.

W. Guy Morrison, director of physical education in the city, presented the cup to Edna Vanden Bos, senior manager.

WITCHES' GAMBOL

Black cats, pumpkins, cornstalks, and witches decorated the Dillingham gymnasium for the ninth annual Witches' Gambol given October 24, 1934, by the Girls' U Club.

Eleanor Rawly, dressed as the N.R.A. bird, received a prize for the cleverest costume; Lily Wozinski for the prettiest; Dorothy LaGran for a realistic impersonation of Captain John Silver; and Virginia Roh, Constance Walczeski, Wanda Wynakoski, Irene Schmitt, and Gwendolyn Rendall for the original idea of dressing as the Dionne quintuplets. A tin cup went to the senior girls for the best stunt with a stirring melodrama entitled "The Lone Ranger."

Alyce Phillips, general chairman, was assisted by Jane Riordan, entertainment; Bertha Smith, refreshments; Estelle Poposki, decorations; Wanda Wyzakoski, checking; Genevieve Budnick, booths; Cora Vanden Bos, publicity; Lois Garber, invitation; Queenie Apkarian, clean-up; Arlene Rinner, senior stunt; Wanda Wyzakoski, junior stunt; and Viola Juntunen, sophomore stunt.

SPEEDBALL

Speedball was introduced to Union girls this fall in the outdoor sport tournament. The senior girls proved the most adept by beating both the sophomore and junior elevens.

The tournament started out with a surprising upset. The sophs beat the juniors with a score of 20 to 13; but the next night the seniors piled up a 7 to 2 victory, spoiling the sophs' hopes. The junior-senior game proved the most exciting. It was only with real effort that the seniors got their 8 points to the juniors' 2.

Virginia Miller acted as captain of the senior team. Players were Marian Roh, Alyce Phillips, Ann Anderson, Esther Jaskulski, Queenie Apkarian, Virginia Miller, Elva Pitts, Katherine Rafferty, Arlene Rinner, Bertha Smith, Cora Vanden Bos, Jane Riordan, June Rendall, Estelle Poposki, Marian Verburg, Mary Friedrich, and Julia Vasilauskas.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

Julia Vasilauskas led the senior basketball team to victory over the junior and sophomore team in the annual tournament held the week of March 7 in the girls' gym. The juniors, captained by Jacqueline Wenger, placed second and the sophomores under the leadership of Viola Juntunen third. The score for games were senior-junior, 31-9; senior-soph, 26-1 and junior-soph, 18-10.

The members of the winning team are, forwards: Ann Anderson, Kay Rafferty, Alyce Phillips, and Julia Vasilauskas; jumping centers: Bertha Smith, Esther Asmutis; running centers: Elva Pitts, Mary Friedrick; guards: June Rendall, Queenie Apkarian, Jane Riordan, Marian Roh, and Clarice Vander Veen.
